1. Self-Studies (Recommended)
1.01.	Competences in Scientific Working		TH Köln attaches particular importance to adhering to the principles of good scientific practice. First semester students are expected to have basic competences in academic writing, in particular regarding literature and database research as well as citing / referencing. TH Köln offers several courses in this respect. It is highly recommended to attend these courses in addition to self-study using library resources. For more information please contact the Department Key Skills (Kompetenzwerkstatt).
1.02.	Competences in Foreign Languages		The Language Learning Center of TH Köln is offering a variety of free language courses to students. Especially in light of the study semester abroad or the optional practical training semester, it is strongly recommended that students gain knowledge in a second foreign language. For more information contact the Language Learning Center (Sprachlernzentrum).
1.03.	Cultural Competences		As the fifth semester is dedicated to the mandatory study semester abroad it is recommended that students prepare to live and study in a different cultural context. Taking courses throughout the first four semesters will help students to gain the ability to integrate smoothly into foreign cultures. Students should apply early for these courses offered by the Faculty of Information Science and Communication Studies.
1.04.	Competences in Quantitative Methods		From the start, students are required to utilize mathematical knowledge from secondary level school education. As many courses throughout the degree build on the contents and methodologies of the basic mathematical competencies acquired in school it is strongly recommended to work on any deficits. For more information, please contact the Department Key Skills (Kompetenzwerkstatt Mathefit).
